

Björn Ohl

Bureau of Applied Research
Economic Institute
Narodowy Bank Polski
ul. Świętokrzyska 11/21
00-919 Warsaw
Poland

Phone: +48 22 185-2840
Fax: +48 22 826-9935
Office: 558/C
Email: bjorn.ohl@nbp.pl
Homepage: <https://hhs.academia.edu/bohl>

Education

Ph.D. Economics, Stockholm School of Economics, 2013.

Advisor: Lars Ljungqvist.

Dissertation: “Essays on Endogenous Information in Macroeconomics and Finance”.

Opponent: Stijn Van Nieuwerburgh.

Committee: Claes Bergström, Stephen L. Parente, Jörgen Weibull.

Diplom Volkswirt (Master’s degree in Economics), Humboldt Universität zu Berlin, 2008.

Diplom Betriebswirt, BA (Bachelor’s degree in Business Administration), Berufsakademie Mosbach, 2002.

Experience

Narodowy Bank Polski, Economic Institute, Bureau of Applied Research, Senior Economist, September 2013–present.

Stockholm School of Economics, Department of Economics, Teaching Assistant, 2009–2013.

Humboldt Universität zu Berlin, Department of Economics, Student Research Assistant and Teaching Assistant, 2003–2007.

Fields of Interest

Macroeconomics and Finance.

Research

Papers Under Review or Revision

Mäkinen, T., B. Ohl (2014) “Information acquisition and learning from prices over the business cycle”. Revise and resubmit at Journal of Economic Theory.

Working Papers

Ohl, B. (2013): “Information acquisition and short-term trading in financial markets”.

Mäkinen, T., B. Ohl (2013): On “Slow boom sudden crash”.

Work in Progress

Ohl, B. (2014) “What does government debt do? A macro-finance view”.

Ohl, B. (2014) “A cross-country study of Laffer curves for CEE economies”.

Grants, Scholarships, & Awards

Scholarship from bank research institute (BFI) Stockholm, 2012–2013.

Scholarship from bank research institute (BFI) Stockholm, 2011–2012.

Research grant from the Jan Wallander and Tom Hedelius foundation, 2010–2011.

Ph.D. scholarship from the Stockholm School of Economics, 2008–2010.

ERASMUS scholarship from the European Union for studies abroad, 2004–2005.

Scholarship from the Economic Society of Berlin (WWG) for studies abroad, 2004–2005

Teaching

Stockholm School of Economics, Sweden

Time Series Econometrics in Economics and Finance (Ph.D.): Spring 2013, teaching assistant for Rickard Sandberg.

Statistics (Ph.D.): Spring 2012, teaching assistant for Rickard Sandberg.

Econometrics (Master): Spring 2010, teaching assistant for Fredrik Heyman and Helena Svaleryd.

Microeconomics (Bachelor): Fall 2009, teaching assistant for Richard Friberg.

Humboldt Universität zu Berlin, Germany

Macroeconomics II (Diplom): Spring 2007, teaching assistant for Michael C. Burda.

Macroeconomics I (Diplom): Fall 2006, teaching assistant for Michael C. Burda.

Miscellaneous

Programming Languages: AMPL, Eviews, Fortran, LaTeX, Matlab, Mathematica, Python, R, Stata.

Languages: English (fluent), French (advanced), German (native), Polish (basic), Swedish (intermediate).