
Curriculum Vitae

Personal information

Surname(s) / First name(s)

Address(es)

Telephone(s)

Email(s)

Nationality(-ies)

Date of birth

Hubert, Olivier

Rempart de la Vierge, 8
5000 Namur
Belgium

+32(0)81 72 49 20 Mobile: +32(0)495 46 87 31

olivier.hubert@unamur.be
<https://sites.google.com/site/hubertolivier88/>

Belgian

December 2, 1988

Education

2011 – present

PhD in Economics.

2009 – 2011

Master of Economics Université Catholique de Louvain. Obtained with Great Honours.

2009 – 2011

Master of Economics Uniwersytet Warszawski. Obtained with the grade “Dobry Plus”.

2008 – 2009

1st Semester, Erasmus Exchange Program, University College Dublin (UCD), Dublin, Ireland.

2006 – 2009

Bachelor of Economics, Facultés Universitaires Notre-Dame de la Paix (FUNDP), Namur, Belgium. Obtained with Honours.

PhD Thesis

Title

The identification of risks in emerging economies' bond market.

Supervisors

Romain Houssa, Paul Reding.

Master Thesis

Title

Heterogeneous consumers in a Schumpeterian economy: Willingness to pay and its impact on innovation.

Supervisors

Hélène Latzer, Raouf Boucekkine

Work in Progress

“Macroeconomic-policy Interactions and the Effects of Fiscal Stimulus.” with Romain Houssa, UNamur.

“Identifying the sources of the Risk Premia in Government Bonds.” with Romain Houssa, UNamur.
“A Markov-Switching No-Arbitrage VAR of the term structure of interest rates with latent factors and macroeconomic variables in South Africa.”
“Does the Stock Market care about Monetary Policy ?” with Jolan Mohimont, UNamur
“Hybrid Identification of Monetary shocks in a Small Open Economy.” with Jolan Mohimont, UNamur

Recent Presentations

PhD Workshop in Finance, May 7th 2015, Namur, Belgium.
 Belgian Financial Research Forum, May 27th 2014, Louvain-La-Neuve, Belgium.
 WHU-CEUS Workshop on “The Future of Economic Policies in Europe”, May 16-17th 2013, Koblenz, Germany.
 Doctoral Workshop of the ESL, January 28th 2013, Louvain-La-Neuve, Belgium.

Organization of Scientific Events

Doctoral Workshop in Economics, January 22nd 2015, Namur, Belgium.
 Doctoral Workshop in Economics, May 22nd 2015, Louvain-La-Neuve, Belgium.

Research and Academic Interests

Applied Macroeconomics

Term-structure models, Markov-Switching Models, VAR, Local Projections, Non-Linear Estimation Techniques.

Monetary Economics

Monetary Transmission in multivariate systems, Sign Restriction identification.

Experience

2011 – present

Teaching Assistant at FUNDP, Namur, Belgium.
 – Introduction to Economics (BA)
 – Probabilities and Statistical Inference (BA)
 – Econometrics and Multivariate Analysis (BA/MA)
 – Economic Fluctuations and Foundations of Macroeconomic Policy (MA)
 – Globalization and International Macroeconomic Policies (MA)
 – Tutoring of students' Master Theses (MA)

Prizes and Awards

Awards

Academic performance award for 1st year of study at UW in the Academic Year 2009/2010.

Prizes

3rd Prize at the contest “European Day of the Schools” (2005).

Language

French: Mother Tongue English: Proficient User (IELTS score as of April 2011: Band 8)
Dutch: Limited Professional Capabilities Spanish: Limited Professional Capabilities
German: Beginner Polish: Notions

References

UNamur

Prof. Romain Houssa

Department of Economics

Rempart de la Vierge, 8

5000 - Namur, Belgium

Tel. (0032) + (0)81/72.49.47

E-mail: romain.houssa@unamur.be