

BANQUE DE FRANCE AND EURO AREA BUSINESS CYCLE NETWORK (EABCN)

CONFERENCE ON

“Recent Developments in Monetary Policy Research”

Paris, 4-5 May 2017

The Banque de France and the Euro Area Business Cycle Network (www.eabcn.org) are organising a scientific conference dealing with theoretical and empirical advances in monetary policy research. The conference seeks to bring together the most interesting recent contributions in the subject area. Conference topics include – but are not limited to – the following:

- Quantitative easing policies: effectiveness on inflation and economic activity, financial markets, the banking and insurance systems and their role in the future conduct of monetary policy
- The role and limits of (international) safe asset provision by central banks
- The interaction between monetary policy decisions and supervisory/regulatory functions allocated to central banks
- Cost and benefits of negative interest rates
- Monetary policy design in the presence of heterogeneity

Confirmed Keynote Speakers at the event are:

Emmanuel Farhi (Harvard University and CEPR)

Michael Woodford (Columbia University and CEPR)

The conference organisers are: Klaus Adam (University of Mannheim and CEPR)
Elisa Faraglia (University of Cambridge and CEPR)
Benoit Mojon (Banque de France).

The deadline for applying is January 31, 2017

Authors of accepted papers will be notified of the final programme by February 28, 2017.

Authors who are CEPR members can upload their submission on <http://dev3.cepr.org/accounts/login.asp?NewURL=/accounts/config/accountconfig.asp>. Authors who are not CEPR members can email their submission to csmith@cepr.org. Please indicate in your email whether you would be willing to act as a discussant and if you will be able to cover your own travel and accommodation costs, or whether you will require funding from EABCN. Guidelines on how to register online for CEPR Meetings can be found at <http://www.cepr.org/content/Electronic-Meetings-Organisation>.

Limited funding is available for travel expenses for academic participants presenting or acting as discussants. Expenses will be reimbursed according to the standard CEPR travel guidelines. Costs will not be covered for central bank participants.
