

Dr. Antonio Ruíz Porras
PhD Coordinator
PhD Program in Economic Studies
Professor Researcher
University of Guadalajara, CUCEA

Dr. Ruiz-Porras is member of the Mexican System of Researchers (Level II), the Mexican Academy of Sciences, the Mexican Academy of Economic Sciences, the American Economic Association and the Royal Economic Society (UK). He has the following academic degrees: 1) BA in Economics, Universidad Autonoma Metropolitana, Mexico; 2) MSC in Economics, Colegio de Mexico, Mexico; 3) MSc in Economic Sciences, University of Warwick, UK; and 4) PhD in Economics, University of Nottingham, UK. Currently, he is the member of the Department of Quantitative Methods at the University of Guadalajara. He lectures at the undergraduate and postgraduate levels. As academic has been recognized with the PRODEP-SEP award (Award given by the Mexican Education Ministry to the academics with desirable profile).

Dr. Ruiz Porras has published in journals, book chapters, proceedings chapters and one book. His research has been recognized in Mexico and abroad. He has been recipient of the "Supreme Auditing and Accountability Research Essay" award given by the Mexican Congress. He has also received the "Arturo Diaz Alonso" recognition, given by UNAM, for his research studies in the areas of finance and management. Furthermore, he has received the "Angel Ballesteros Essay" award, given by the Ibero-American Union of Municipalities (Spain), for his research studies in public management and local government.

Dr. Ruiz Porras participates in journal editorial boards and specialized associations. He has been referee for more than twenty journals, published by Elsevier, Inderscience, Springer Verlag, BE Press, Canadian Center of Science and Education, National University of Colombia, UNAM, COLMEX, UDG, UANL and ITESM. He is member of the American Economic Association (US); the Mexican Association of Economists; the Development Studies Association (UK); the Financial Intermediation Research Society (US); the Royal Economic Society (UK); the Mathematical Mexican Society and the Jalisco's Academy of Sciences.

Professionally, Dr. Ruiz Porras has been in charge of evaluations for the Mexican Council of Science and Technology (CONACYT) and the Mexican Council of Economic Sciences (CONACE). Furthermore, he has collaborated in MultiBanco Comermex (Scotiabank), in Nacional Financiera (development bank) and Contaduría y Administración "Ruiz Aguirre" (accounting firm). He has written columns of economic analysis for the Mexican newspapers "El Economista", "Reforma" and "Diario NTR".