Conference on
New Challenges in
Monetary Economics and Macro-Finance
August 31 - September 1, 2023
University of Mannheim, Germany

Call for Papers
Submission Deadline: 5 pm GMT, Thursday 20th April 2023

The conference covers a broad range of themes around monetary and macro-finance topics. It will bring together recent contributions in this area of research, including studies with a strong theoretical basis and empirical papers. A non-exclusive list of examples of relevant topics includes:

▪ High inflation and its consequences
▪ Supply-side disturbances and structural change
▪ Financial stability and international capital markets
▪ Digital assets and the unit of account role of money
▪ Monetary and fiscal interactions with high public debt levels
▪ The role of firm, product and consumer heterogeneity
▪ The role of expectations and communication

Markus Brunnermeier (Princeton University and CEPR) and Christian Wolf (MIT) are confirmed invited speakers, and we welcome further relevant submissions.

The conference is organized by Klaus Adam (University of Mannheim and CEPR) and Moritz Schularick (University of Bonn, Sciences Po, IfW Kiel and CEPR).

The event is hosted by the University of Mannheim and sponsored by the EABCN, the Collaborative Research Centre TR 224 at the University of Mannheim and the Kiel Institute for the World Economy (IfW Kiel). Funding is available for travel expenses for academic participants presenting or acting as discussants. Expenses will be reimbursed according to the standard CEPR travel guidelines. Costs will not be covered for central bank participants.
