

Workshop on Empirical Macroeconomics

Call for papers

Ghent University is hosting the 4th Workshop on Empirical Macroeconomics on 23 - 24 May 2016 in the historical center of Ghent (Belgium).

The aim of this two-day workshop is to bring together researchers working on topics in Empirical Macroeconomics to present and discuss their ongoing research. We therefore invite contributions on issues related to Monetary and Fiscal Policy, Business Cycle Analysis or International Macroeconomics. Further information about the event and the programs of the workshop's previous editions can be found on the workshop website.

The workshop will start at 9:00 am on Monday 23 May and will finish before 1:00 pm on Tuesday 24 May. A conference dinner is scheduled on Monday. One hour of total time will be devoted per paper. A limited budget is available for the reimbursement of (economy class) traveling and hotel costs for some participants. The request for reimbursement must be stated explicitly when submitting your paper.

The submission deadline is 7 February 2016. Papers should be sent to empiricalmacro@ugent.be. Authors of accepted papers will be notified by the end of March.

Workshop organizers are Marco Bernardini, Selien De Schryder and Gert Peersman.
